ABOUT

Hi, I'm Adam

A UK based photographer living in Cheshire but travelling all over to shoot weddings.

I've loved photography and art for as long as I can remember and have been working on my own portfolio for over 15 years. I combined my passion with my education, graduating from Leeds Metropolitan University with a degree in Photography.

My inspiration comes from everywhere – my family, music, nature, architecture and of course, the moment two people say “I do”.

The most fantastic thing about wedding photography for me is that no two weddings are the same. I love working with my couples, getting to know them and their quirks and communicating that through their images that they will have forever. I am truly proud to say that some of the couples I have worked with have become friends and nothing is more rewarding.

What to Expect

I understand that every wedding is unique, and I strive to reflect this in the images I capture.

My style is modern, natural and relaxed. I look for those unseen moments of true emotion that will remind you year after year how special your day was.

As a documentary-style photographer, I remain in the background throughout the day – you may even forget I am there! This is done on purpose so that you and your guests feel at ease and the smiles, laughs and tears are nothing but genuine.

To gain the trust of my couples from the outset is hugely important and so from first enquiry to delivery of your final images, we will build a relationship so that you know you are getting the images you want. I love hearing your ideas and I am happy to advise based on my experience too.

Thank you for your interest, I can't wait to work with you!

What do I get?

As each wedding is so unique, I work closely with my couples to tailor a bespoke package that suits their day.

While the finer details may differ from wedding to wedding, I can guarantee in any of my packages:

- A passionate and experienced wedding photographer and photographer's assistant
- A pre-wedding consultant to discuss requirements and ongoing lines of communication
- All images will be edited by myself, not a third party
- Final images are delivered to you quickly, both digitally and on a USB stick in the post

Optional Extra

Prints

- I am proud to be able to offer my couples a one-stop-shop for their wedding photographs. I can assist with the printing of your final images for an extra cost in a variety of sizes, framed/unframed, mounted/unmounted – however you want them presented, I can help.

Additional expenses may be incurred depending on location of wedding

FAQ

How are my final images delivered?

Your images will be delivered on a personalised USB wrapped nicely as a memento of your day. I will also print off some images as a standard size photograph so you can see what your pictures will look like in print.

I will also email your final images on a protected file.

Your images will be delivered by myself or by post (depending on location).

Are all images edited by you?

Yes. All images are edited personally by me. I will sift through every photograph from the day, select only the absolute best and meticulously edit your final images so you have a lovely set of photographs to remember your special day. I opt for quality over quantity so depending on package, I will be able to give you an estimate number of final images upon booking.

How long does it take for my photos to be ready?

Depending on which package you choose your photos will be ready between 3 and 6 weeks after the big day.

How do I book?

Simply get in touch via email or telephone to choose your package. Once everything is agreed I will then send you an invoice. I will require a deposit of 20% of the final price to secure your date.

Testimonials

Lucie & John – November 2018

As someone who really doesn't like having their photo taken, I couldn't have picked a better photographer for our day. We asked for some candid shots and we were totally blown away by the massive selection we were given by Adam.

Our photos are completely natural and captured the day so beautifully. He was very open and helpful when it came to the final editing and now we have the perfect memories of our day captured exactly as they were. We really could never thank him enough

Amy & Matt – May 2018

Sarah & Hannah – August 2018

Becca & Jamie – August 2019

Hayley & Mark – December 2017
